An Alumnus Offers To Return Diploma

A Suggested Change In Name of Paper

This came to us purely on the wings of rumor, so we do not guarantee the accuracy of the story. A certain alumnus of the college a few years ago recently wrote the administration to the effect that he had cheated in the final exams of his senior year and his conscience had bothered him ever since. Along with this confession he returned his diploma, so the story goes, and asked that his name be stricken from the list of alumni of the college. The administration promptly sent the diploma back to its owner with the answer that it was too late to do anything about it now, and that he would just have to remain on the records as a bona fide graduate of Hamilton College.

* * * * *

A certain prominent undergraduate recently approached us with the suggestion that we change the name of the paper "Hamilton Life", he pointed out, was too dull a title for the publication. He suggested we consider such names as "The Continental" or "The Buff and Blue". We could advance a few arguments in favor of the existing name, but perhaps we're a bit prejudiced on the subject. Therefore, we throw the question open for discussion.

* * * * *

In reference to our article on Hamilton's colors we received a letter from an alumnus informing us that he had read in a biography of Daniel Webster that this worthy gentleman was buried in his favorite colors of Continental Buff and Blue.

Frosh Gym Pledges Solicited at Dinner

On last Wednesday evening, May 17, at 6:45, a freshman banquet was held in the Hall of Commons for the purpose of securing freshman pledges to the Gym Fund. Contribution cards were distributed to every member of the class, who were given until June 1 to make their pledges.

Robert Collins, president of the class, introduced Dr. Cowley, who spoke briefly on the Gym Fund. Since President Cowley came into office with the class of '42, he said that he wanted to be considered a member of it, and, as such, was going to contribute $500 to the freshman quota.

Samuel Nuspliger, representing the Quadrangle Club, was called upon to say a few words, and Robert Henry, head of the freshman group of D. T., encouraged members of the class to participate in sports.

Guest speaker of the evening was the architect of the new gymnasium, Mr. Roy Newkirk, who took the group on an "imaginary" tour of the building, describing its features in great detail. One interesting feature of the building.

Farewell Dinner Given Dr. and Mrs. Saunders

This evening at 7:00 o'clock, the Sadaquada Golf Club was the scene of a dinner party given by the faculty in honor of Professor and Mrs. Saunders. The dinner was in the nature of a farewell party, since Professor Saunders is retiring next year after 39 years of teaching at Hamilton College. At present, Dr. Saunders is head of the Chemistry department.

The guests, who consisted of the faculty members and their wives, numbered about 80.

Coach Albert I. Prettyman was in charge of arrangements.

Student Objection Delays Approval Of Conduct Plan

Intramural Council Formed With Representatives Of All Groups

An objection raised in Chapel this morning delayed action on the revised Student Council Plan for Student Conduct. The voting is to take place Friday morning.

The Student Council decided, at its meeting last week, that the regulation of student conduct is to be placed in the hands of a Judiciary Council. Every undergraduate is on his honor to assume obligation to report an offender after the breach has been comitted.

This judiciary body is to consist of the members of the Student Council and the president or representative of each organization not represented on the Student Council. In determining punishment, each organization is to be allowed only one vote.

The severity of each action is to be levied according to the degree of the offense, and such action is to be left to the discretion of the Judiciary Council.

No organization in the College shall have a committee which shall punish an offender, but there must be a committee, composed of members of the offender's group, which will appear before the Judiciary Council in behalf of the offender. The offender does not have to be present when this committee makes its report to the Judiciary Council.

Intramural Council

The Student Council also decided to form plans for an Intramural Council which shall consist of twelve members. Ten of these have been elected as follows: Kerr, Delta Upsilon; R. Griffith, E. L. S.; Remis, T. K. E.; Root, Chi Psi; Geer, D. K. E.; Phelps, Sigma Phi; Keane, Lambda Chi Alpha; Thomas, Theta Delta Chi; Sisson, Alpha Delta Phi; and Langdon, Psi Upsilon. The members are to be elected for a term of one year. by the Council itself.

The Intramural Council shall be completely at the head of the intramural program and activities, with the Department of Physical Education as consultants.

Dry Weather Speeds Work on Gymnasium

Aided by the exceptionally dry weather of the last few weeks, the work on the new College gymnasium has progressed rapidly.

The installation of the concrete footings upon which the building will rest has been completed, and steel framework will soon begin to appear atop these footings.

During the last week the contractor has been erecting forms for the inner cement walls at the swimming-pool end of the site. The forms were put together in sections at a Clinton lumber mill, and then were brought to the gym site where they were bolted together. It has been necessary to oil these sections since they will have to be used again for another wall of the structure. In the course of the excavation of the foundations for that end, a great pile of earth has been thrown up where the swimming pool will be situated eventually.

Tha tons of structural steel which have been arriving on the Hill for the last few days were milled by the Bethleham Steel Co., and were trucked in from Buffalo. As with the form sections all the steel work has been cut and prepared at the mill for immediate erection. Fortunately with June examinations just around the corner, the builders are not going to rivet these steel members together, but bolt them, so that there will be camparatively little noise to disturb those who will be studying in nearby dormitories.

Pi Delta Epsilon Initiates Seven New Men

The Hamilton chapter of Pi Delta Epsilon, National Journalistic fraternity, met last week to initiate seven new members into its organization. The men were selected on the basis of service on publications and by reason of elections to responsible positions for next year.

The newly inducted men are: J. Leo Coupe, '39, George L. Barton, III, '40, George H. Day, '40, Ralph E. Hansmann, '40, Richard C. Missbach, '40, Lewis B. Rock, Jr., '40, Henry B. Sanson, '40, David R. Tomlinson, '40, and Richard S. White, '41.

New Plans Made For Graduation

Several innovations in the routine of Commencement weekend will be observed at the annual exercises this year. According to the program recently released by the college these features will include a "sing" for alumni and undergraduates somewhat on the order of the annual interclass sing, a change in the date of the Clark Prize Contest, a new method for the registering of returning alumni, and a plan to serve lunch to wives of alumni who will attend the luncheon in the Hall of Commons Saturday noon.

The sing will be held in front of the library Saturday afternoon under the direction of alumni and undergraduate leaders. It will be an informal affair and will include every type of song connected with college life.

The Clark Prize Contest will be held in the Chapel on Sunday evening instead of Saturday evening this year. This change was made in order to avoid conflicts with fraternity reunions.

A marquee will be erected on the campus to serve as registration headquarters for returning alumni. This will avoid congestion in the Administration building. Monday noon, while the alumni are in attendance at the regular banquet in Commons, their wives will be served with a buffet luncheon in the Marquee. Loudspeakers placed near here will enable them to hear the proceedings of the luncheon at which Ezra Pound will speak.

This year marks the 127th time that Hamilton College has graduated men from the institution.

Men to Be Honored Have Many Interests

The four men besides Ezra Pound upon whom Hamilton College is to bestow honorary degrees on June 12 are distinguished representatives from widely different fields. Perhaps the most nationally known of these men is Hans V. Kaltenborn, who has spent his life in close association with the press and the radio.

Mr. Kaltenborn graduated from Harvard in 1909, cum laude and a member of Phi Beta Kappa. He traveled a great deal from 1900 until 1910 when he took a position on the Brooklyn Eagle which he did not abandon until 1930. During this twenty year period, he served as dramatic editor, editorial writer, assistant managing editor, and associate editor. He carried on many other activities in addition to his newspaper work.

In 1922, Mr. Kaltenborn identified hisself with radio broadcasts and it is in this capacity that he has distinguished himself, especially during the Spanish Revolution and the recent European crises.

Scoon, Rhodes Scholar

Dr. Robert Scoon, '07, professor of philosophy at Princeton University, was the first graduate of Hamilton College to receive a Rhodes Scholarship. He received his B.A. from Merton College (Oxford University in 1910 and his Ph.D. from Columbia in 1916. During the three years 1911-1914, he was instructor of classics at Princeton. He then spent a year as instructor at Washington University, and returned to Princeton as assistant professor of the classics until 1923. From 1923-1928, he served as associate professor of philosophy. Since 1928, Dr. Scoon has been a full professor, receiving the distinguished position of Stuart Professor of Philosophy in January, 1936.

Mr. Elihu Root, Jr., '03, is probably the best known by Hamilton students, since his home used to be at Hamilton College, and he has served as a member of the Board of Trustees of the College for several years. Mr. Root graduated from Hamilton in 1903, received his A.M. degree in 1905, and his L.L.B. from Harvard in 1906. His admittance to the New York Bar in 1906 launched him forth on a career which has been highly successful. The list of corporations and firms of which he is adviser or overseer is too long to quote here. It should be noted, however, that his business enterprises have not swerved his interest away from education. He holds important positions at Harvard University and at Hamilton College—positions to which he gives a great deal of time and thought.

The Right Reverend Malcolm Endicott Peabody, Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Central

R. M. Scoon, Peabody Are Candidates for Similar Honors

THREE ARE ALUMNI

Cowley to Award Diplomas As Feature of Annual Commencement

Ezra Pound, '05, famous poet and critic, Hans V. Kaltenborn, renowned journalist and radio commentator, and Elihu Root, Jr., '03, New York Lawyer, head of the list of candidates for honorary degrees to be presented by the College next month. Robert M. Scoon, '07, and Bishop Malcom E. Peabody of Utica are also to be honored at the annual Commencement exercises June 12.

The invitations, made public today, were issued through the Trustee Committee on Honorary Degrees at the spring meeting of the Board of Trustees. All five men have accepted and will appear in Chapel during the Commencement exercises to receive their diplomas and hoods.

LL.D. to Pound

Pound, who recently returned to this country after an 18-year sojourn in Europe, will be awarded the degree of Doctor of Letters. Kaltenborn, who became world known through his concise descriptions and comments on recent stirring world events, is a candidate for the degree of Doctor of More Humane Letters. Scoon, head of the department of philosophy at Princeton University, is also a candidate for this degree. Elihu Root, Jr., member of Hamilton's Board of Trustees and prominent New York lawyer, will receive the degree of Doctor of Laws. The Rt. Rev. Malcom E. Peabody, bishop coadjutor of the Central New York Diocese of the Episcopal Church, is to be presented with the degree of Doctor of Divinity.

President Cowley will deliver the customary citations to each of these men. It is expected that they will address the Chapel audience briefly in acceptance of the degrees.

Hobart Will Present Honorary Degree To Cowley

President W. H. Cowley will receive the honorary degree of Doctor of Humanities from Hobart College, Geneva, N. Y., on Monday, May 29. The degree will be awarded as part of the regular commencement exercises at the up-state institution. Following the ceremony President Cowley will say a few words in acceptance of the honor.

Was Los Ducks Sixth Sophomore

Was Los initiating was completed this morning, when Jack Williams was trampled under the feet of the present members of the junior honorary society and then tossed into the fountain pond. His induction completes the tapping activities of Was Los, which have been carried on following the past six morning chapel services.

First tapped by the junior and senior members of Was Los was Willard B. Eddy, Jr., son of Willard B. Eddy, '14. Eddy, a member of both Quadrangle and D. T., is also a sophomore member of the newly-formed student council, is on the Honor Court, and has won letters and numerals in track and football. He also sings second bass in the college choir. By virtue of his being tapped first, Eddy is president of next year's Was Los.

Abbey Tapped Second

Edward H. Abbey, second of the sophomores tapped, was president of the Class of '41 during its freshman year. A member of Quadrangle and D. T., he takes part in soccer, hockey, and tennis.

Following Abbey's initiation, was the tapping of Willis F. Weeden, president of the sophomore class. Weeden is a member of Quadrangle and D. T., and has won his letter in football in addition to participation in basketball.

Laurance P. Miller, tapped Friday morning, is a letter man in hockey and is on the golf team this spring. He is also a student council member.

Joseph P. Mangan, trampled and tossed Monday morning, is a member of Quadrangle, was class song leader the past two years at the annual class sing, was goalie on the soccer team last fall, played freshman tennis, was a member of the college choir last year, is varsity cheerleader, is on the board of The Royal Gaboon, and is feature editor of Hamilton Life.

McKinney Contest Declamers Chosen

The faculty in regular meeting Monday approved the selection of 12 undergraduates to compete in the annual McKinney Prize Declamation Contest on June 9. The following men will speak:

Class of 1940: Ralph E. Hansmann, T. Litchfield Howe, Murray D. Shepp, and Edwin A. Waskiewicz. Class of 1941: Albert B. Hooke, David B. Moore, John T. Symes, Jr., and William C. Zahn. Class of 1942: David M. Appleton, Thomas E. Colby, III, Robert B. Paddock, and Harold F. Zaehringer.

Junior Year Abroad

The faculty also approved two Hamilton sophomores who will spend their junior year in France next year under the provisions of the Delaware Plan. Robert Peach, '41, and Arthur Applegate, '41, will go to Paris and study Romance Languages.

Boris H. Klosson, '40, who is studying abroad under the Delaware Plan this year will return to the Hill campus next fall. Klosson is majoring in Political Science at the University of Geneva, Geneva, Switzerland.

The faculty adopted a resolution commending William Weld and Wallace B. Johnson for the fine work they did in running the sub-freshman week-end two weeks ago.

Ezra Pound Has Led Varied Literary Life

"An athletic, red-blonde figure with a high Rooseveltian voice, dressed in velveteens, wide-open collar, and large velvet beret." This was a description given by a Parisien a few years ago of Ezra Pound, who will receive an honorary degree on June 12.

Two years after his graduation from Hamilton in 1905, Pound went to Europe in search of further material for a thesis on Lope de Vega. For a time he settled down in Venice where he published his first book of poems, "A Lume Spento". Following this Italian sojourn, the poet went to London. There he lived for ten years, working chiefly at translating and lecturing in the interest of "the new poetry," which ultimately resulted in the emergence of the Imagist School. In 1920 Pound went to Paris for four years, and then, tiring of France, moved to the Italian Riviera. 1939 marks the first time in eighteen years that he has been in the United States.

Despite the fact that Pound received his Ph.B. degree from Hamilton, he spent only two years on the Hill. At the age of fifteen he enrolled at the University of Pennsylvania as a special student in order "to avoid irrelevant subjects." Two years later he transferred to Hamilton to complete his course.

Ezra Pound has always been a pioneer in new poetic forms. As Louis Untermeyer once said, "He has helped to broaden many of the paths which a score of unconsciously influenced poets tread." He is definitely a personality—enthusiastic, nervous, self-conscious. Pound's versatility is shown by the wide scope his words cover. He has adapted Chinese poetry and Japanese Noh plays; he has translated medieval Provencal, Latin, and modern French poetry; he wrote the music to an opera which was produced in 1926.

As a propagandist, Pound has been most successful. He praised James Joyce when he was unknown, and helped him to the position of recognition he now occupies. He has also aided lesser writers up the ladder of literary success.

He will go down in history along with Alexander Woollcott as Hamilton's most famous men of letters.

THE REVISED PLAN ON STUDENT BEHAVIOR

The "Plan Pertaining To Student Behavior" to be voted upon in chapel Friday morning represents at last an effort to deal in a rational manner with a difficult problem. As soon as the former plan, presented by the Student Council last week, was subjected to thoughtful study, it became obvious that no such arrangement could possibly work at Hamilton. Too many rules and sub-rules were laid down. The entire plan was inelastic.

The new plan does away with the major faults of its predecessor. The penalty for each case of "reprehensible and obnoxious conduct" is to be based on that particular case and no other. The Juriciary Council will not constantly be faced with a dilemma such as under which written law to fit certain borderline cases which are bound to arise. Fraternity politics will assume a back seat in the administration of the plan. Each organization will have an equal voice in all cases, and no one group will be able to shield a black sheep in their midst by failing to report him or by letting him off with a fraternity "warning for the first offense." Then too, by setting down no definite laws in advance, those constant pests who go as far a they dare without openly violating the letter of the law will be reduced to a minimum.

In most discussions about the latest plan, two questions seem inevitably to arise. First and most important concerns Article II which reads, "Each student of Hamilton College is on his honor to assume obligation to report an offender to the Judiciary Council." The question which arises is this. Would one student, in most instances, actually report another, even if he witnesed him acting in an obnoxious manner? The answer is that there seems to be no sensible reason why he should hesitate to do so. He certainly would not incur the condemnations of that minority who smile at improper conduct, for the source of all reports remain in strictest confidence. And, on the other hand, he hardly would be shielding his fellow-student from the Judiciary Council, for it is very seldom that news about reprehensible conduct doesn't ultimately become the common property of the entire college community.

The second question which arises in discussing the plan is simply one of definition. Just what constitutes "reprehensible and obnoxious conduct?" It would be utterly impossible to define that phrase in the plan with any greater amount of clarity. If a more qualified definition were attempted, it would result in an endless maze of loopholes. Reprehensible and obnoxious conduct can have but one interpretation—the individual interpretation which each undergraduate gives it. The case to be reported is one which, in the mind of the witness, is reprehensible.

When the plan is approved Friday morning the student body will have completed for the time being its case to have Hamilton students handle disciplinary problems arising in their midst. The next step must be taken by the trustees. Perhaps that body will be reluctant to allow such a plan to go into effect, because the faith has been placed in the decisions of a body of twelve men, and not in a predetermined set of penalties. But careful considration of the whole situation seems to point to one conclusion: If the undergraduates of Hamilton College are to control student behavior, it must be done in an impartial manner by rules which can be moulded to fit each situation which arises. And that is just what the present plan does.

Alumni Notes

By Professor Edward Fitch

Frederick W. Putnam, M.D., Honorary, '08, died May 2 in Binghamton, where he had practiced medicine for half a century. He was an enthusiastic collector of material bearing on College history, and had assembled for the College Library an almost complete collection of autograph letters of Hamilton College graduates.

Robert H. Chastney, '23, of the Townsend Harris High School of New York City, was elected president of the Classical Association of the Atlantic States at its annual meeting held in Philadelphia on April 29. Mr. Chastney has shown marked ability in administrative work, to which he has recently given much of his time, though his interests are those of a classical teacher. He is an associate editor of the Classical Weekly.

In a spirited school election held in North Tarrytown on May 3, in which 1,292 out of a possible 1,402 electors cast their votes, Clifford V. Fisher, '27, received the highest number of votes for membership on the school board. Mr. Fisher is assistant cashier of the Tarrytown National Bank.

The engagement of Miss Dorothy Marie Thomas of New Rochelle to Joseph C. Hartman, '33, has been announced. Mr. Hartman is with the United States Trust Company of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Woodruff Vivian have issued invitation to the marriage of their daughter, Elizabeth Jane, to Frederick Carlos Ferry, Jr., '35, on June 10, in the Trinity College Chapel, Hartford, Conn.

At the convention of the Massachusetts Dental Society, held in Boston during the last week in April, Ellis B. Brewster, '35, a senior in Tufts College Dental School gave an anatomical table clinic on the oral cavity and related structures, starting Monday and continuing through Thursday.

David S. Burgess, '36, now University Research fellow at Brown University, has received the appointment to one of the three Jesse Metcalf fellowships in chemistry.

June 26 has been set as the date for the marriage of Miss Ruth Rice of Auburn to John W. Gosling, '36, of Rochester. Mr. Gosling, who did graduate work at Cornell University, is now employed by the Eastman Kodak Company.

Willard B. Soper, '36, who is just completing his studies at Union Theological Seminary, will be ordained to the ministry by the Presbytery of Westchester on June 2, in the Huguenot Memorial Church, Pelham Manor, where his father, Rev. Willard P. Soper, D.D., '04, is pastor.

Ralph E. Van Alstine, '36, who is under appointment as assistant in geology at Princeton University for the coming year, will accompany Professor A. F. Budlington, head of the department of geology at Princeton, on a scientific expedition to Newfoundland this summer.

Edwin F. Gillette, '37, now an instructor in mathematics at Middlebury College, will take work in accounting at Syracuse University next year, as a candidate for a master's degree. The Council on Men's Affairs announces his appointment as resident adviser of men students for the year 1939-40.

Flash of the week is the "Greek Trip", attended by quite a number of the local gentry; Willy, the Griff; Jo-Jo, the Cardamo, and John, the pride of the Hawleys'. With three, shall we say, very blind dates, they wheeled to Millbrook to see Bennett Junior College's Greek Play, not getting back till 2:30 Sunday afternoon. The Colonel's niece ran quite a gamut during this last week. Reports are many and varied, but the average seemed to run just slightly over one and a half per day. Sonny Dale is supposed to have run a hard race, but Casey Bornmann was hot on his heels right up until the home stretch.

Everyone seemed to be going on trips this last week-end, but the most complexedly simple one of them all was Applegate's, Morgan's, and Kempsell's. They wanted to go to a movie, so they went. Of course, the movie happened to be at Radio City, but after all, what's Radio City on a Saturday night? The laddies whipped over to Ossining, kind of on-the-wayish, but none of the Morganses were home, so they ripped on to temporary head quarters at the K mansion. (Mr. Kempsell you will remember as the frog chaplain of the Teke Tower, who only last Sunday night, locked John F. DeBernardis in the library and walked away, whistling, into the night.) They saw the show, and returned to the Hill just in time for chapel. Mr. Morgan, however, missed teaching his village Sunday School class for the first time in simply ages.

"PINK TOOTH BRUSH"
with Ipana and Massage

A BRIGHT, sparkling smile is so important to good looks! Don't risk "pink tooth brush"! Give your gums as well as your teeth proper care!

But if your tooth brush should flash that warning tinge of "pink"—see your dentist at once. You may not be in for serious trouble, but let him decide. Usually, however, his verdict will be "gums robbed of work by our modern soft foods"—"gums that need exercise for better health." And, as so many dentists do, he may suggest the healthful stimulation of Ipana and massage.

Get an economical tube of Ipana at your druggist's today. Each time that you brush your teeth, massage a little extra Ipana into the gums. For Ipana is especially designed not only to keep teeth bright and sparkling but with massage to help the health of the gums as well. Help keep your smile attractive the Ipana way!

Colgate Defeats Trackmen, 73.5-52.5; Hill Nine Loses Final to Rochester

Cancel Albany Game, End Fair Season With Defeat

The Continentals bowed to Rochester, 3-1, Saturday before a large "Dad's Day" crowd. Although they outhit the Yellowjackets, 6-5, they couldn't bunch their blows in effective fashion. The Hill team scored first, as they dented the plate in their half of the third inning. Rochester got their markers in the third, fourth, and eighth frames. In the seventh the home team threatened to score, with men on all three sacks, but Bob Williams came in for Hilfinger and quelled the uprising. He was aided greatly by a sensational play on the part of Bill Joy, third sacker for the Continentals, who made a brilliant stop and throw to force a man at home.

Ulrech, star Yellowjacket flinger, showed his usual stuff in striking out nine Hamilton stickers. His curve ball was working beautifully, and he had good control throughout the game.

Hamilton ended its baseball season here yesterday as the scheduled game with Albany State Teachers College was rained out. The Continentals had beaten the Teachers a week before.

Beat Albany

Last Wednesday the Hill baseball team visited Albany and defeated the State College, 9-6, in a game played at Bleeker Stadium. The Continentals rapped out eleven hits, good for nine runs, while Bob Williams and Marty Hilfinger held the Teachers at bay,

Jack Williams greeted Van Keuran, the Albany pitcher, by smacking the first ball offered him for a home run. Hamilton also scored another counter in the opening frame. Bob Williams, starting on the mound for the Buff and Blue, got off to an auspicious start by whiffing three opposing batsmen in the Albany half of the first.

In the sixth inning Hamilton tallied five times on as many hits. in this outburst, Jack Williams again connected for a four-bagger, this time with a man on base. The Hillmen scored their two final runs in the following frame on three bingles.

During his five and one-third inning stretch on the rubber, Bob Williams fanned ten, and Marty Hilfinger retired two more via the strikeout route.

Hilfinger again took the batting honors with three blows, followed by Jack Williams and Roider with two each.

Fraternities Compete On Track and Field

This afternoon saw the first half of Hamilton's annual interfraternity track meet, won last year by the Chi Psis. The 70 yard high hurdles, 100 yard dash, 440 yard, and mile were run off among the track events; among the field events the shot put, high jump, and the javelin throw.

Tomorrow afternoon the second half of the interfraternity track meet will be held. A schedule for the events is as follows:

4:40 Trials 140 yard low hurdles.
4:50 Trials 220 yard.
5:00 Finals low hurdles.
5:15 Finals 220 yard.
5:25 880 yard.
5:45 880-yard Relay.
4:40 Discus, Pole Vault.
5:00 Broad Jump.

The first five places in each event, field and track, will be worth 5-4-3-2-1-points for the men finishing first to fifth. In the 440, 880, and mile, the referee can refuse the entry of any man who, in his opinion, is not in condition to run.

Because of varsity competition, Tice, Bramley, Dodge, Fancher, Gardner, Heidner, Maloy, Mark, Nevin, Sisson, Eddy, and the Underwood twins have been declared ineligible for the meet.

Brown Football Squad To Practice Here For Colgate

The Brown football team will practice on Steuben field next October 13 in preparation for their game with Colgate on the next day.

Permission for this privelege was granted to the Brown Athletic Association by the faculty in their regular meeting Monday.

Rochester Beats Hill Golf Team

The varsity golf team suffered a 7½-1½ defeat at the hands of a strong Rochester golf team on the latter's course last Saturday, May 20.

Low score of 79 was carded by a Rochester man. Captain John Giffin won his match , 1 up for the only Hamilton victory. Bush halved his match to gain the other half point for the Hill team. The other four Hamilton men were defeated by their Rivermen opponents by the following scores: Miller, 6-4; Gadbaw, 4-3; Rogers, 3-1. Giffin and Gilmore lost best ball, 2 down.

Runners Sustain Third Loss of Year in Close Meet

The Colgate track team, by taking ten first places to Hamilton's four, was able to subdue the Continentals last Saturday by a score of 73½ to 52½. The meet, held on the Red Raiders' track, was close throughout, with the Hamilton runners accounting for most of the second and third places.

George Nevin, Bernie Maloy, Bruce Sisson, and the Underwood twins were the individual stars in this meet. The Underwoods tied for first place in the two mile run, after Sisson and Nevin had won the pole vault and discus events respectively. Maloy scored eight points for the Hamiltonians wtih a first in the 220-yard dash, and a second in the 100-yard dash.

The meet was originally planned as a handicap meet for Colgate. Her men were to run in only one event each, but A. R. Winters, coach of the Hamilton team, overlooked these conditions when the meet got underway. As a result, Colgate was able to put the same man in more than one event, and this eventually decided the meet in favor of the Red Raiders.

Cazenovia Beaten

On Friday, the frosh track team met the Cazenovia Seminary squad here, and defeated the visitors by a score of 72 to 31. Dwight Lindey, Phil Leavenworth, Fred Taylor, Bill McGhee, David Appleton, and Melzar Richards starred for the freshmen, as they took seven first places out of twelve events. The freshmen had previously lost their only other engagement when two weeks ago the Oberlin frosh defeated them in a telegraphic meet.

An interfraternity meet today and tomorrow ends the track season on the Hill. The varsity travels to Rochester Saturday to meet the Yellowjackets in their final engagement of the year.

Sport Notes

Edward B. Leary, '41

Most successful of the current spring sports squads, and for that matter, of any squad this year, was Coach Weber's baseball aggregation. Queerly enough, nobody expected much of the Hill tossers at the start of the season. But Marty Hilfinger developed into a capable hurler, and sophomores Art Petronio and Jack Williams proved their worth in their first year as varsity men. Captain Towner, Hilfinger, Roider, Cunningham, and Kirk will be lost by graduation, and this loss will be keenly felt. However, Bob Williams and Jim Henderson will be on hand to take care of the twirling assignments, augmented perhaps by one or two pitchers from this year's freshman squad. There will be an infield gap to plug, and a couple of vacant posts in the outer defense. Hilfinger and Roider will also be missed at the plate, where their consistent stickwork helped the team greatly. But Coach Weber did wonders this season, and with Petronio, Williams, Davis, Joy, and Henderson as a nucleus, he may produce an even better team next spring.

Varsity Tennis Team Trips Rochester, 6-3

The varsity tennis team avenged itself for an earlier defeat at the hands of Rochester by downing the Yellowjackets 6-3 in a match played at Rochester last Saturday. The Hilmen took five out of six matches in the singles and one out of three in the doubles event.

Erickson, playing number one position for Hamilton, defeated Chapin in straight sets, 8-6, 6-3. Abbey copped another point for the Gelasmen by downing Roberts, 6-2, 3-6. 7-5. MacLenathan won his match from Drake in a close one, 3-6, 8-6, 7-5. Phelps annexed another point when he beat Wall easily, 6-0, 6-1. Male overcame his opponent, Williams by a secore of 7-5, 4-6, 6-1. Pugsley, playing number six, lost in the singles to Woods, 8-6, 3-6, 1-6.

In the doubles matches Rochester was more fortunate, winning two out of three. Hamilton's number one team, Erickson and Abbey came out over Chapin and Roberts, 6-1, 5-7, 7-5, while MacLenathan and Phelps lost to Drake and McLaughlin, 5-7, 3-6, and Male and Pugsley dropped their match to Woods and Jermyn by the score of 4-6, 4-6.

Alumni Review Out This Week

The last issue of the year of the Hamilton Alumni Review will come out toward the latter part of this week. In addition to the regular features, such as news of events on the Hill and the listing of alumni, there will be many interesting articles included in the issue.

The cover of the magazine will present a picture of Professor Saunders taken by his daughter Sylvia. Furthermore, in view of his outstanding career and his retirement next semester, Professor Saunders will be the subejct of an article written by Professor Chase.

Mrs. Edward W. Root has written an article for the issue entitled "25 June 1873". In this there is a letter written in 1873 by Mrs. Oren Root to her son Elihu, at the time of the dedication of a monument to Samuel Kirkland and the Indian Shenandoah.

President Cowley has contributed an article entitled "They Need Jobs", which is an appeal to the alumni to obtain positions for the Seniors.

In this issue will be the first of a series of articles on alumni of Hamilton who have become principals and superintendents of schools —of whom there are about fifty in New York State alone. An article also concerning alumni will be the one entitled "Who's Who, Among the Young Alumni". Accounts of Hamilton alumni in the book "America's Young Men" was made the basis of this article.

Copies of the Alumni Review will be sent to all senors. Those others who desire a copy may obtain one at the President's office.

Resigns Position

Edward N. Main

Main to Vacate Publicity Post

Edward N. Main, head of the Hamilton College Press Board, today announced his resignation from the position he has held since the fall of 1936. Mr. Main stated that he intended to go into an active branch of newspaper work. The resignation is effective July 1st of this year.

Main began his publicity work for the college while still a member of the undergraduate body. Up to that time there had been no active press association on the Hill. The need for such a position was felt by the alumni of the college who urged the administration to establish a news bureau. Since its inception, the Press Board has been successful in getting stories of college activities printed in publications all over the country.

The administration stated that a successor to Main had not yet been selected.

McConnell Talks On "Lost" Man

Basing his sermon upon St. Luke 19:10, "For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost", Bishop F. J. McConnell of New York preached in the College Chapel last Sunday.

He first traced a brief history of the conceptions of the word "lost", telling of the theological viewpoint—loss of eternal life in heaven, and a later conception in which "lost" meant morally degraded.

"But in Luke," said Bishop McConnell, "it is applied to the common man, the man who has no moral purpose, the man who is carried along by the pressure of everyday life, the man who has no sense of orientation."

He went on to say that we can find our purpose and learn the direction in which it lies by putting life into the words of Jesus.

New York, is to receive his first doctor's degree on his fifty-first birthday. He received his early education at Groton School, later attending Trinity College in Cambridge, England. In 1911, he received his B.A. from Harvard University.

From 1911-1913, he served as Master of the Baguio School for American Boys in the Philippine Islands. On his return to the United States in 1913, he attended the Episcopal Theological School at Cambridge, Mass. During the World War, he was a Chaplin in the U. S. Army.

From 1920-1925, Bishop Peabody was Rector of Grace Church in Lawrence, Mass. In 1925, he took over St. Paul's Church in Chestnut Hill, Philadelphia, where he remained until his consecration as Bishop Coadjutor in Utica, Sept. 29, 1938.

Offering collaboration to songwriters from either a lyric or melody angle, the Song Hit Guild, Inc.,—which you heard about a little while ago—has signed for a 13 week stretch on WNEW, New York's Make-Believe-Ballroom.

Another WNEW wire of note is the recent one to the Cuban Village. Last Thursday was the first broadcast from the Village, and one a week from now on will follow. Listen in for good, hot rhumba, and when you get down to the Fair, go to the Village yourself—the music isn't the only thing that's hot there.

Outstanding Records:

Bluebird: Artie Shaw blazes on his trail of success on "Rose Room" and "Alone Together". Eddie De Lange, rapidly becoming King of the Novelties, adds two more clicks: "There's a Hole In The Old Oaken Bucket" and "Say Ah".

Victor: Hal Kemp scoring a sensation with "My Hands Are Tied" and "Delightful Delirium". Larry Clinton scores with "Over The Rainbow" and "The Jitterbug".

Decca: The Andrews sisters, tops in vocal syncopation, top everything with "Begin The Beguine" and "Long Time No See".

College Church Holds Election of Officers

Last Sunday evening, the members of the College Church met at the Faculty Club to elect Elders for the coming year.

Professor Willard Marsh was elected to fill the vacancy left by Dr. Hess, who retired this spring. Professor Moore and Dale will remain as faculty members of the Church Session.

Undergraduates who were chosen to the position of Elders were: Clyde J. Moon, '41; and Thomas Colby, '42. This year's Elders who will remain in office are: Ralph Nichols, Jr., '40; George L. Barton, III, '40; and Seth McKibben, '41.

At the meeting, the members discussed various methods of increasing the monthly offerings. It was suggested that one Sunday in the year be devoted to revealing the activities of the Church to the student body. Various methods of obtaining a wider opinion on the merits of the preachers for the coming year were also discussed. The possible plan for this was to pick several students to give their opinions to the President, so that he could get various viewpoints on the subject.

Professor Moore then gave a report of the financial situation which was as follows: Total collections of the year were $393.71; dispersments to the Presbyterian Church of Foreign Missions under the charge of Paul Abbott, Jr., '32, $100; to the Middle School in Hamadan, Iran, for scholarships, $100; to the Far Eastern Students Emergency Fund, $50; to the American Friends Service Committee for German refugees, $50; to the Student Christian Movement in New York State, $50; and for general expenses, $50.

Fennell Booked For Senior Ball

Russ Newkirk, chairman of the Senior Ball Committee, announced this week that plans for the ball have been completed. In order to center the evening's activities on the Hill, the dance this year will be held at the Psi Upsilon house.

The ball, final dance of the year at Hamilton, will be held on the evening of June 9, from 10 to 3. Len Fennell, whose music has been featured on the Hill for several years, will play. His music is regularly heard at the George F. Pavilon in Johnson City.

Underclassmen will be admitted to the dance as well as seniors, Newkirk said. Instead of holding the affair at some Utica hotel or club, as has been the arrangement before, the dance is being held on the Hill this year to further student interest.

Other members of the Senior Ball Committee are Harry E. Judson, William G. Erickson, and John R. Carter.

Last Sunday afternoon we watched the Utica entry in the Can-Am League divide a doubleheader with Cornwall, their rivals in the fight for the cellar spot. The Utes, in taking the first game of the twin bill, broke into the win column for the first time after dropping the first seven games of the season. To us the brand of ball played in the Can-Am, judging from what we saw Sunday, leaves much to be desired. The Hamilton team, with Marty Hilfinger in form could give the Braves a real battle. If the management would put a better outfit on the field, they should be able to rake in the shekels at Braves Field, for the Utica fans show a great amount of interest in baseball. Sunday they cheered lustily for a team that made eight or nine errors in the first four or five innings of the nightcap. But unless the club is fortified with a few new and better players, the bleacherites will lose their enthusiasm.
